Immigration Attorney Referrals

The Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) www.nwirp.org

NWIRP is a nonprofit organization that provides direct representation to low-income noncitizens and their families on immigration-related matters, including deportation defense. NOTE: Due to the tremendous need for their services and limited resources, NWIRP can only provide direct representation to a small percentage of noncitizens who need it. NWIRP has three offices in Washington State:

Western Washington Office

615 2nd Avenue, Suite 400
Seattle, WA 98104
206.587.4009 or 800.445.5771

Eastern Washington Office

121 Sunnyside Avenue, P.O. Box 270
Granger, WA 98932
509.854.2100 or 888.756.3641

Tacoma Office – Serving Northwest Detention Center

253.383.0519
Note: Please contact this office only to reach staffs who are serving those detained at the NW Detention Center.

Wenatchee Office

37 S. Wenatchee Avenue Suite C
Wenatchee, WA 98801 509.570.005

Colectiva Legal del Pueblo www.colectivalegal.org

Colectiva Legal del Pueblo is a non-hierarchical collective organization founded for and by undocumented and migrant communities working to provide legal support while building community power for migrant justice.

Private Attorneys

These attorneys are private immigration practitioners. While they are all based in the Seattle/Tacoma/Olympia area, they all represent noncitizens and their families throughout the state of Washington. All of these attorneys have considerable expertise in the confluence between immigration law and criminal law. All are members of the Washington State Chapter of the American Immigration Lawyers Association. These attorneys all speak Spanish and/or have Spanish-speaking staff, as well as the capacity for numerous other languages.
